We are most pleased that you will be able to join our Seminar on "CIA and the Congress" the afternoon of 28 October. This Seminar is being given to about twenty of our Senior Intelligence Service officers to better acquaint them with the Agency's interaction with Congress and with the differences in perspectives that sometimes occur between the Legislative and Executive branches of government. We also will visit with the Select Committees.

The panel you are being asked to join will be moderated by Chuck Briggs and will include members of his staff and Danny Childs, the Comptroller. It will begin at 3 p.m. in Room 1001 at the Chamber of Commerce Building, 4600 North Fairfax Drive, Arlington, Virginia. The building is at the North Glebe Road/Fairfax Drive entrance/exit of Route 66. We will contact you several days before to arrange a parking space. The session will end at 4:30 p.m.

The panel is intended to permit a frank and open exchange between those officers at CIA who deal with Congress every day and the SIS participants who do not. We will review the role of oversight and some of the intelligence services provided to Congress. Your participation will provide some very useful insights to the CIA-Congressional relationship as seen from the Hill.
